Case 10-RC-15801

ROAD SPRINKLER FITTERS LOCAL UNION 669
Petitioner

DECISION AND CERTIFICATION OF RESULTS OF ELECTION

The National Labor Relations Board has considered determinative challenges in an election held September 23, 2010, and the Acting Regional Director's report recommending disposition of them.¹ The election was conducted pursuant to a Stipulated Election Agreement. The tally of ballots shows 3 challenged ballots.

The Board has reviewed the report in light of the Petitioner's exceptions and brief, has adopted the Acting Regional Director's findings and recommendation, and finds that a certification of results of election should be issued.²

CERTIFICATION OF RESULTS OF ELECTION

IT IS CERTIFIED that no valid ballots have been cast for Road Sprinkler Fitters Local Union 669, and that it is not the exclusive representative of these bargaining-unit employees.

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

¹ In the absence of exceptions, we adopt pro forma the Acting Regional Director's recommendation to sustain the challenge to the ballot of Jack White.

² In adopting the Acting Regional Director's findings and recommendation regarding the Petitioner's exceptions, we note that by letter dated January 14, 2011, the Acting General Counsel denied the Petitioner's appeal of an unfair labor practice charge in Case 10-CA-38560, which had been dismissed by the Regional Director.
